SUBJECT : Foreign Shipping to North
Vietnam in May 1965

The attached report is another in a series on merchant shipping to North Vietnam. Based on information available at the time of writing, it states that following the unusual low in April, total calls in May by all foreign ships returned to a level approaching the monthly average for the first quarter of 1965. Free World ships accounted for 27 of the 51 foreign-ship arrivals in May. The number of Chinese Communist ships arriving in North Vietnam continued high.
